

Have you ever wanted to attend a National Girl Scout Convention?

Arrangements for a Girl Scout Adult Alumnae trip to the 54th National Girl Scout convention in Columbus, Ohio are underway!

Please note that participating in this exciting opportunity means that you would be attending the convention as a guest without voting rights. **

Dates of the Convention: October 4-8, 2017

Cost would include:

- Convention Registration Fee: (details regarding how to register will be made available through the GSUSA website in the coming months)
- Hotel: (there will be a block of rooms set up for you to make your hotel registration when this information becomes available). The rates are being set by GSUSA and we have not received those rates yet. To keep costs down, room with your friends.
- Bus Service: there will be bus service set up which will provide a round trip from the Twin Cities to Columbus, Ohio. The bus service cost will depend on how full the bus is. Cost will be lower than flying to Columbus.
- Not included: Personal Expenses: meals, gifts, etc.

The planning has is under way! If you have interest in joining us or need information, please contact Kathy Scholer (h)763-755-9105 or Email rickkathyscholer@aol.com. As more information becomes available, we will contact you and post on the River Valleys Website.
